

BEECH GREEN PRIMARY SCHOOL

ANTI-BULLYING POLICY

Spring 2016

A: INTRODUCTION

This policy plays a central role in realising our commitment to creating ‘a secure, caring environment in which all are equally valued and respected’ (Beech Green Statement).

This policy should be applied in conjunction with the school's Behaviour and Racial Equality Policies with which it is closely associated.

B: AIMS

The aims of implementing this policy are:

- ❑ to develop positive relationships between children;
- ❑ to maintain the caring ethos of the school, in which all pupils feel valued and secure;
- ❑ to foster self-esteem;
- ❑ to prevent conflict between children at an early stage.

C: DEFINITION

For the purposes of this policy bullying is defined as:

‘Persistent and repeated offensive, abusive, intimidating, malicious or insulting behaviour consciously intended to make the recipient feel upset, threatened, humiliated, angry or vulnerable’ (adapted from Gloucestershire LA definition).

This can take many forms, including:

- Physical - pushing, hitting, kicking, violent threats, taking and damaging property.
- Verbal - name calling, sarcasm, gossiping, spreading rumours, persistent teasing.
- Emotional - tormenting, humiliating, ridiculing, ignoring, excluding.
- Cyber - harassment, distress or humiliation using internet-related and telephone technology. (See Appendix 1)
- Racist - gestures, taunts, graffiti, mocking.

D: PRACTICE

a) Prevention

The best means of dealing with the issue of bullying is to create a climate of mutual tolerance and care between all members of the school community. Such a climate is created through:

- ❑ Staff modelling a caring acceptance of and respect for others.
- ❑ Curricular opportunities to explore and discuss bullying and relationships with the children, including Circle Time and SEAL activities.
- ❑ Presenting bullying as unacceptable through PSHCE-related activities beyond the classroom such as school assemblies, drama presentations, etc.
- ❑ Annual Anti Bullying Week to raise the profile of the issue and repeat key messages about definitions and how to deal with it, including information to parents.

In addition staff will take the following courses of action to help deter bullying:

- ❑ Look for early signs of distress in a child.
- ❑ Listen carefully and sympathetically to any child who is upset.
- ❑ Deal promptly and effectively with parental concerns.
- ❑ Regularly reassure all children that they will be taken seriously if they feel they are being bullied.

b) Intervention

Bullying can involve any member of the school community, and will need to be investigated if the recipient feels they are being bullying.

In responding to an accusation of bullying, it is important to take into account:

- ❑ The age and level of understanding of both the accuser and the perpetrator;
- ❑ Whether the perpetrator was aware of the effects of their actions;
- ❑ Whether actual harm was inflicted;
- ❑ Whether the incident was isolated or part of a pattern.

Two strategies are appropriate during the initial stages of any bullying incident, and will be suitable in resolving the majority of problems.

i) Restorative Justice.

This works to resolve conflict by encouraging those who have caused harm to acknowledge the impact of their actions and provide the opportunity to make amends. The approach asks four questions:

- what happened?
- Who was affected?
- How can we put it right?

- How will it affect future actions?

Outcomes may include:

- giving the recipient the opportunity to tell the perpetrator how they feel;
- getting the perpetrator to explain their actions and acknowledge their impact;
- offering an apology;
- taking positive action to put right the harm caused.

ii) Support Groups.

This involves seven basic steps:

- 1) Talk with the recipient to establish how they feel, to gain their agreement to this course of action and to establish who should form the support group. Invite him/her to write or illustrate how they feel.
- 2) Convene a meeting with the group members, to include those directly involved (but not the recipient), observers and some friends.
- 3) Explain the problem, emphasising the recipient's feelings, but not allocating any direct blame.
- 4) Share responsibility, making clear that there is joint responsibility to resolve the problem.
- 5) Invite solutions from each member of the group.
- 6) Leave it for the group to put into action their solutions.
- 7) Meet again with each member of the group and the recipient separately to establish how things are going and to check that the bullying has stopped.

If these approaches are not successful in stopping the problem, direct action will need to be taken against the individual/s responsible, involving:

- meeting with parents;
- formal recording of the behaviour;
- drawing up a specific plan of action to prevent further bullying;
- in extreme cases, exclusion.
